APPLICATION OF WINDELS MARX LANE & MITTENDORF, LLP,
FOR AN AWARD OF COMPENSATION AND
REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES FOR THE PERIOD
FEBRUARY 1, 2009 THROUGH FEBRUARY 28, 2009

TO: HONORABLE JAMES M. PECK, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE

Windels Marx Lane & Mittendorf, LLP, (“Windels Marx” or “Applicant”), attorneys authorized to provide legal services as Ordinary Course Professionals to Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc., (“LBHI”) and its affiliated debtors in the above referenced chapter 11 cases, (collectively referred to as “Lehman” or the “Debtors”), makes this Application pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq. (the “Bankruptcy Code”), and the Order Pursuant to Sections 105(a), 327, 328, and 330 of the Bankruptcy Code Authorizing the Debtors to Employ Professionals Utilized in the Ordinary Course of Business, dated November 5, 2008 (the “Ordinary Course Professional Order”), for an Award of compensation for professional services rendered to the Debtors (the “Application”) in the amount of $220,181.00, incurred during the period February 1, 2009 through February 28, 2009 (the “Period”), and reimbursement of disbursements incurred during the Period in the amount of $3,810.11, for a total award of compensation and reimbursement of disbursements of $223,991.11.

I. INTRODUCTION

1. On September 15, 2008 and periodically thereafter (the “Commencement Date”), LBHI and certain of its subsidiaries filed voluntary cases under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors’ chapter 11 cases have been consolidated for procedural purposes only and are being jointly administered pursuant to Rule 1015(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”). The Debtors are authorized to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. Due to the scope of the Debtors’ business, on October 13, 2008, the Debtors’ filed a motion (the “Ordinary Course Professional Motion”) seeking authorization pursuant to sections 105(a), 327, 328 and 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, to retain, nunc pro tunc to the Commencement Date, professionals utilized in the ordinary course of business (the “Ordinary Course Professionals”) without the submission of separate retention applications and the issuance of separate retention orders for each individual professional. Windels Marx was designated as an Ordinary Course Professional in “Exhibit C” to the Ordinary Course Professional Motion and Order.

3. The Ordinary Course Professional Motion was granted by Order dated November 5, 2008 (the “Ordinary Course Professional Order”). The Ordinary Course Professional Order outlines the procedures that all Ordinary Course Professionals must follow in order to receive compensation and reimbursement of expenses for services provided to the Debtors. With respect to any Ordinary Course Professional seeking compensation in excess of $150,000 in any given month, the Ordinary Course Professional Order provides, in pertinent part,

“that in the event that an Ordinary Course Professional seeks more than $150,000 per month, that professional will be required to file a fee application for the full amount of its fees and expenses for that month in accordance with sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, the [Bankruptcy Rules], the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Southern District of New York, the Fee Guidelines promulgated by the US Trustee, and any and all orders of the Court...”

A copy of the Ordinary Course Professional Order, with exhibits, is annexed hereto as Exhibit “A”.

4. This Application is made by Windels Marx for an allowance of fair and reasonable compensation for professional services rendered by it on behalf of the Debtors during the Period, consistent with the results achieved, the time, labor and expertise brought to bear on the problems presented and other related factors and for reimbursement of actual and necessary out-of-pocket expenses incurred in the rendition of such professional services during the Period. The amounts sought for compensation for professional services are at the hourly rates customarily charged by Windels Marx for legal services rendered by the respective professional or paraprofessional and are reasonable and customary for firms of Windels Marx’s size and expertise in the New York City and Metropolitan areas.

5. For the convenience of this Court, and in accordance with the Fee Guidelines adopted by the Office of the United States Trustee, a summary of the total hours worked during the Period by each professional and paraprofessional for whose services compensation is being sought, together with a recitation of the hourly billing rate for each person and the total compensation sought for each person's services in each individual matter, is annexed hereto as Exhibit "B".

6. The professional services for which compensation is sought were rendered in the Ordinary Course of the Debtors business and solely on behalf of the LBHI and its debtor affiliates.

7. Windels Marx regularly maintains records of time expended in the rendition of all professional services and records of costs and expenses incurred on behalf of the Debtors. These records were made substantially concurrent with the rendition of the professional services. All such records are available for inspection. (A copy of the time records, in chronological order and segregated by individual matter, relating to Windels Marx's representation of the Debtors during the Period, is annexed hereto as Exhibits "C").

II. BACKGROUND

A. The Debtors

8. Prior to the events leading up to these chapter 11 cases, Lehman was the fourth largest investment bank in the United States. For more than 150 years, Lehman has been a leader in the global financial markets, serving the financial needs of corporations, governmental units, institutional clients and individuals worldwide. Its headquarters in New York and regional headquarters in London and Tokyo are complemented by a network of offices in North America, Europe, the Middle East, Latin America and the Asia Pacific region.

9. Additional information regarding the Debtors' businesses, capital structures, and the circumstances leading to these chapter 11 filings is contained in the Affidavit of Ian T.

Lowitt Pursuant to Rule 1007-2 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Southern District of New York in Support of First-Day Motions and Applications, filed on September 15, 2008 [Docket No. 2].

B. Windels Marx

10. Windels Marx is a full service law firm with a broad-based general legal practice centering on corporate, banking, litigation, real estate and other major business practice areas.

11. The Debtors originally retained Windels Marx in 1993 to provide ongoing advice to the company in connection with various real estate transactions. Windels Marx has continued to provide these services to the Debtors up to and through the Commencement Date.

SERVICES RENDERED BY WINDELS MARX,
DURING THE INTERIM PERIOD

12. Windels Marx has opened a file bearing a separate client number for the Debtors. The Debtors' client number is 303694. All time and disbursements are billed to independent matters within the general client number. The following is a summary description of the services rendered by Windels Marx in each of the following matters on behalf of the Debtors during the Period:

Culver City – 2199

38. Applicant represented LBHI in connection with its rights under a Letter Agreement and the possible return of LBHI's deposit money.

III. SERVICES

39. Professional services rendered by Windels Marx have necessarily been time consuming. However, all of the services for which compensation has been requested were rendered in connection with the performance by Windels Marx of the duties prescribed for it under the Ordinary Course Professional Order and as real estate counsel for the Debtors.

40. Windels Marx believes that the award of compensation requested in the within Application is fair and reasonable. Windels Marx requests that this Court award all fees sought in the within Application at Windels Marx's normal hourly rates, the total value of which is $220,181.00.

IV. DISBURSEMENTS

41. Windels Marx is also requesting reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred on behalf of the Debtors during the Period in the amount of $3,810.11. The total amount of compensation for legal services rendered and reimbursement of disbursements totals $223,991.11.

V. STANDARDS FOR ALLOWANCE OF COMPENSATION

42. Windels Marx submits that for the reasons set forth in detail above, the professional services rendered by Windels Marx on behalf of the Debtors during the Period were necessary and reasonable.

43. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes compensation for reimbursement of expenses of professionals in cases arising under the Bankruptcy Code and provides, in pertinent part, as follows:

(a)(1) After notice to the parties in interest and the United States Trustee and a hearing, and subject to sections 326, 328 and 329, the court may award to... a professional person employed under section 327 or 1103 –

(A) reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by...professional person, or attorney and by any paraprofessional person employed by any such person; and

(B) reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses.

(2) The court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the United States Trustee, the United States Trustee for the District or Region, the trustee for the estate, or any other party in interest, award compensation that is less than the amount of compensation that is requested.

(3) In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded to...professional person, the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including –

(A) the time spent on such services;

(B) the rates charged for such services;

(C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;

(D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;

(E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and

(F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

(4)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), the court shall not allow compensation for --

(i) unnecessary duplication of services; or

(ii) services that were not --

(I) reasonably likely to benefit the Debtors' estate;

or

(II) necessary to the administration of the case.

11 U.S.C. §330(a).

44. In considering an application for compensation made by a professional, the initial inquiry is whether the services for which compensation are sought were necessary. See, e.g., In re Keene Corp., 205 B.R. 690, 696 (S.D.N.Y. 1997); In re Harshbarger, 205 B.R. 109 (S.D. Ohio 1996); In re Lederman Enterprises, Inc., 997 F.2d 1321 (10th Cir. 1993); In re International Coins & Currency, Inc., 22 B.R. 127 (D. Vt. 1982). The term “necessary services” has been interpreted by the majority of courts, including this Court, to signify services that resulted in a benefit to the estate. In re Lederman Enterprises, Inc., 997 F.2d 1321, 1323 (10th Cir. 1993); In re Keene Corp., 205 B.R. at 696; In re Engel, 190 B.R. 206, 209 (Bankr. D.N.Y. 1995). Services “reasonably likely to benefit the Debtors' estate, are compensable.” Section 330(a)(4)(A); In re JLM, Inc., 210 B.R. 19 (BAP 2d Cir. 1997); see also In re Keene Corp., 205 B.R. at 696, quoting 3 Collier on Bankruptcy, ¶330.03[3], at 330-26 (the services at issue must at least provide the estate with “an opportunity commensurate with cost” to be compensable).

45. In calculating whether the fees sought are reasonable, Courts determine the lodestar amount. See, Pennsylvania v. Delaware Valley Citizen's Council For Clean Air, 483 U.S. 711, at 725-26 (1987); In re United States Football League v. National Football League, 887 F. 2d 408, 413 (2d Cir. 1989), cert. denied 493 U.S. 1071 (1990); In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, Inc., 133 B.R. 13, 22 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1991) (“It is now well settled that the ‘lodestar’ method of fee calculation . . . is the method to be used to determine a ‘reasonable’ attorney fee in all the federal courts, including the bankruptcy courts.”); In the Matter of Cena's

Fine Furniture, Inc., 109 B.R. 575, 581 (E.D.N.Y. 1990). The lodestar amount represents “the number of hours reasonably worked on a case multiplied by a reasonable hourly rate.” Wells v. Bowen, 855 F.2d 37, 43 (2d Cir. 1988).

46. In determining the proper allowance of compensation for professionals, a court generally looks to the (a) time and labor required, (b) novelty and difficulty of questions involved, (c) requisite skills, (d) customary fee, (e) whether fee is fixed or contingent, (f) results obtained, (g) nature and length of professional relationship, (h) awards in similar cases, and (i) professional standing, ability and expertise of the law firm. See, e.g., In the Matter of Cena's Fine Furniture, Inc., 109 B.R. 575, 580-581 (E.D.N.Y. 1990); In re Wonder Corp. of America, 82 B.R. 186, 191 (D. Conn. 1988).

(a) Time and Labor Required.

The time and labor required to represent the Debtors during the Period has been significant. The matters handled by Windels Marx and the efforts undertaken by Windels Marx in the representation of the Debtors are fully set forth above and in the time entries annexed hereto.

(b) Skills Requisite to Perform Legal Services,
Experience, Reputation and Ability of Windels Marx.

Windels Marx believes that its expertise in the areas of real estate and transactional analysis has substantially contributed to results achieved.

(c) The Customary Fee.

Windels Marx submits that the fee it seeks is not unusual given the size and complexity of Debtors' business, the benefits conferred on the Debtors' estates, the time expended and is commensurate with what other attorneys of comparable experience and expertise charge on a regular basis.

(d) Whether Fee is Fixed or Contingent.

Pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, all fees sought by professionals employed under section 327 of the Code are contingent upon approval by the Court.

(e) Results Obtained.

Windels Marx consistently achieves results that the Debtors find favorable and continue to work toward that end.

(f) Nature and Length of Professional Relationship.

Windels Marx has counseled, advised and represented the Debtors from their retention in 1993 through the current date.

(g) Awards in Similar Cases.

Comparable firms have been awarded fees in numerous chapter 11 cases under the Bankruptcy Code by this and other bankruptcy courts predicated upon the same criteria and resulting in awards comparable to that now requested.

(h) Professional Standing, Ability and Expertise of Windels Marx Attorneys.

A) James J. Thomas - James J. Thomas is a Partner at Windels Marx and is a member of the Firm's Real Estate Practice Group. Mr. Thomas' practice focuses on capital markets financing and equity investments.

B) Robert A. Rossi - Robert A. Rossi is a Partner at Windels Marx and is a member of several Practice Groups, including Real Estate; Corporate & Securities; Financial Transactions; International; and Technology, Intellectual Property & E-Commerce. Mr. Rossi focuses on joint ventures, mergers and acquisitions, start-ups, and financial services, including securities and commodities. Mr. Rossi regularly represents both institutional clients and closely held entities in real estate, corporate and securities transactions. He has also represented commodity trading advisers and commodity pool operators, as well as a number of e-commerce ventures.

47. As Windels Marx's time records reflect, where practicable, associate attorneys were used in the representation of the Debtors. Those associate attorneys had varying levels of experience and were assigned to handle specific tasks on the basis of that experience.

VI. CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Windels Marx Lane & Mittendorf, LLP requests that an order be entered providing for an award of (i) compensation for professional services rendered by Windels Marx as attorneys for the Debtor, in the amount of $220,181.00, plus reimbursement of actual and necessary disbursements in the amount of $3,810.11 for a total of $223,991.11 and (ii) such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

STATEMENT PURSUANT TO FEDERAL RULE OF BANKRUPTCY PROCEDURE 2016(b)

1. I am a member of Windels Marx Lane & Mittendorf, LLP ("Windels Marx"), Ordinary Course Professionals for Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc., ("LBHI") and its affiliated Debtors in the above referenced chapter 11 cases (collectively referred to as "Lehman" or the "Debtors"), and the partner in charge of the matter.

2. Windels Marx submits that all of the professional services for which the annexed Application is made have been rendered solely for benefit of the Debtors' estate and its creditors.

3. No agreement exists between Windels Marx and any other person, firm or entity concerning the compensation or reimbursement received as a result of this case.

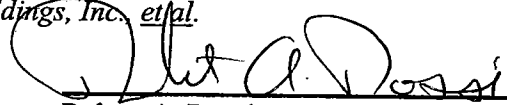

4. Windels Marx has received no retainer in the cases and has made no agreements with the Debtors for compensation or reimbursement.

5. Windels Marx has received no transfer, assignment or pledge of property of the Debtors' estate except pursuant to an Order of the Court for compensation.

Dated: New York, New York
March 31, 2009

Respectfully submitted,
